

3/25/20

The Massachusetts Senior Care Association is working with the state to stop the spread especially among elderly residents. Some of the steps they are taking: issuing daily guidance to its more than 50,000 workers, working to secure the necessary equipment for staff, including masks, gowns, and gloves, ending all group dining activities and enforcing restrictions on visitors.