

Preparing Your Facility for CNA CPR Certification

Tuesday, June 23, 2026
12:00 pm – 1:00 pm
Virtual

Seminar Description:

CNA's working in Massachusetts nursing facilities and assisted living residences will soon be required to be CPR/AED certified within three months of employment, while existing CNAs must be certified by Spring 2027. To assist members and their staff in meeting this new requirement, MSCA is hosting “Preparing Your Facility for CNA CPR Certification” webinar that will outline the regulation, share information and resources to ensure compliance, and learn from three member organizations who are successfully utilizing three different training models/partnerships to assist their staff with obtaining CPR certification.

Program Objectives:

Webinar participants will understand:

- The scope of the proposed regulation.
- Various approaches to CPR training to help you determine the process most closely aligned with the needs of your facility.
- Practical experience of three Member organizations.

Presenters:

- Dan Carmody, Survival Group
- Donna Babineau, Director of Clinical Education, Landmark Management Solutions
- Beth Dennis, VP of Clinical Services, Clinical Care Consulting/Marquis
- Karen Petruccelli, Vice President of Clinical Services, Legacy Lifecare

Target Audiences: Administrators, Directors of Nursing, Staff Development Coordinators, Human Resources Directors
