MASSACHUSETTS SENIOR CARE ASSOCIATION

Implementing the Certified Medication Aide Role in Massachusetts Nursing Facilities

Monday, September 15, 2025
2:00 pm – 3:00 pm
VIRTUAL

Seminar Description:

Are you ready to implement the newly established Certified Medication Aide (CMA) role in your facility? State law now allows CMAs designed to support nursing staff, create growth opportunities for Certified Nursing Assistants, and improve quality of care to work in nursing facilities. Join us as we provide an overview of key elements in the CMA regulations, 105 CMR 775.00, including certification, scope of practice, training, and supervision requirements. In addition, attendees will hear directly from a provider who has successfully integrated medication aides into their long-term care workforce in Rhode Island. Learn practical strategies, and how to plan for effective implementation in your own facility. Don't miss this opportunity to get ahead and prepare your team for this important workforce innovation.

Objectives:

- Explain the scope of practice for certified medication aides
- Understand core components of the regulations and training
- Identify strategies for implementation of the certified medication aide role
